IMPORTANT NOTE:

At Item 12 on the agenda the President will formally suspend the Association AGM and will open 20 Ward General Meetings which will run concurrently. Members on the electoral register in each ward will be asked to vote by secret ballot to ratify the selection of their Local Government Candidate(s) (the relevant ballot paper will be handed to each member as they register at the door). Attendance at the Association AGM will also be recorded as attendance at the Ward General Meeting and apologies submitted for the Association AGM will also be taken as apologies for the Ward General Meeting.

NB: if there are 15 or more members present from any ward, the vote will be binding. If there are fewer than 15 members, the vote will be advisory and the final decision taken by the Association Executive Council.
